

Manufacturing Skills Australia instant copyright licence

The resources offered through MSA's online products (<http://www.mskills.com.au/shop> and <http://sustainabilityskills.net.au>) have been developed from funds supplied by the Commonwealth Government (various departments) and Manufacturing Skills Australia Industry Skills Council.

All rights reserved. The resources work is copyright, but permission is given to trainers and teachers to make copies by photocopying or other duplicating processes for use within their own training organisations or in a workplace where training is being conducted.

This permission includes all written documents and video recordings available through the web sources listed above.

This permission does not extend to the making of copies for use outside the immediate training environment for which they are made, nor the making of copies for hire or resale to third parties.

Outside these guidelines all material is subject to copyright under the Copyright Act 1968 (Commonwealth) and permission must be obtained in writing from the Manufacturing Skills Australia Industry Skills Council. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

No resources may be made available for hire or resale with financial gain other than for a cost recovery fee for distribution. The following information is provided in some resources but is applicable to all.

This work is copyright and licensed under the MSA Free for Education Copying instant licence (MSA Licence).

When you obtain a copy of material that bears the MSA licence mark by legitimate means you obtain an automatic licence to use and copy the work in whole or in part, solely for educational purposes.

Individual learners may:

1. use the material personally for their education such as including it, with proper attribution, in work that is performed in the course of that education; and
2. make unlimited copies, in whole or in part, of the material.

Education Providers or Other Organisations may:

1. use the material within the organisation or for the services provided by the organisation;
2. make or give copies to learners;
3. charge for the education provided; and
4. charge learners for the material on a cost-recovery basis.

Queries regarding the MSA Licence conditions should be directed through the MSA website at www.mskills.com.au

In addition to the standard MSA Licence conditions, the following special conditions apply:

1. Territory: The copyright work must only be used in Australia and New Zealand.
2. Development Rights: Licensees are permitted to develop either an Edited Version or Enhancements of the Licensed Material for individual organisation purposes.

Disclaimer

This work is the result of wide consultations with Australian industry participants. It is a collaborative view and does not necessarily represent the view of MSA or any specific body. For the sake of conciseness it may omit factors which could be pertinent in particular cases.

While care has been taken in the preparation of this resource, MSA and the original developer do not warrant that any licensing or registration requirements specified here are either complete or up-to-date for your State or Territory. MSA and the original developer does not accept any liability for any damage or loss (including indirect and consequential loss) incurred by any person as a result of relying on the information contained in this training resource.

This work is in response to the intent of the unit of competency from the respective Training Package but must be customised and contextualised to meet the end user requirements as it may not be fully compliant in its current format. The material is provided on this basis to any person for information and advice for the intended purpose and all persons accessing this material undertake responsibility for assessing the relevance and accuracy of its content. No liability is accepted for any information or services which may appear in any other format. No responsibility is taken for any information or services which may appear on any linked websites.